Work of the Womens Institutes in Alberta

By Mrs. J. F. Price
Publicity
Commissioner.

The house address of the publicity corner of the Alberta Women's Institutes is 1219 Fifteenth street N.W. Calgary and institutes contributing reports to these columns are asked to send them to the above address. News reports and photographs of general interest to institute members are welcomed. Those sending them please keep in mind to send the news of meetings at once, as news is not new if it is old to write on one side of the paper only, to tell the important facts to write plainly and to avoid general statements, such as "A delightful time was had," an interesting lecture was given," without backing them up with what was "delightful" or "interesting" about such occasions.

ENGLISH INSTITUTES WANT
Two Shropshire institutes have expressed a wish to be linked with institutes in Canada, writes Mrs. H. W. Shropshire, Women's Institutes. "Our institute is on the outskirts of our county town of Shrewsbury, so is not a really rural institute, the other is right in the country."

She adds that "we should write letters to the institutes, possibly every two months, telling each other anything which we may think interesting on either side. We think this is a good plan would you be kind enough to put us in touch with two institutes?"

NEW CIVIL WORK
The town of Hines had a very bad fire recently which destroyed one third of it, including the post office, telephone headquarters, bank, two stores and a number of buildings. Four families were reported homeless. This added to the fact that it had been conducted in the previous year, but it is hoped that meetings will be continued with their usual enthusiasm soon.

J. Austin Chamberlain Says Expenditures for 1920 Were Approximately $144,000,000 in Excess of Estimate of Last Year, But $83,000,000 Below Revised Estimate of Last October.

The deficit since the end of March, he said, amounted to £1,174,000,000, showing a reduction of £86,000,000 in the deficit since the end of March. FRANCE MUST KEEP UP ARMY, PARIS OPINION

700,000 Men Must Be Kept Under Arms Until Treaties Are Carried Out

Paris, April 19.—France must maintain an army of 700,000 men until enemy countries "show their good will" by executing the terms of their treaties, is the opinion of government officials, according to newspapers here.

Plans under contemplation call for $10,000,000 conscription until training, 18 months service before being called to arms.

Warce equal to those paid industrial workers less the cost of food and lodging provided by the government, will be paid enlisted men and conscripts who re-enlist. It is expected to carry out this program will be introduced in the chamber some time in June.

Butter relative to the length of hair, mustache and beard, which since 1914 in the west have been very scarce, have been relaxed. In future a soldier may have his hair in any way he may please and he need not have his hair cut short.

Regulation permitted beards, but specified they must not be so luxuriant as to reach his collar.
